

CODE OF CONDUCT For Thames High School COACHES AND MANAGERS
--

Good Sport is about positive attitude. As a coach you set the standards. Your commitment is about your team playing the game well – rather than winning at all costs.

To the best of my ability I will:

- Set personal behaviour standards for myself and those I coach/manager to follow.
- Give each player the same amount of my attention and time.
- Provide every player with the same opportunities to play the game.
- Avoid over-playing the talented players. The “just average” players need and deserve equal time.
- Never argue with the referee, encourage cheating or make excuses for losing.
- Always be positive. Never shout at or ridicule the players.
- Respect players’ efforts regardless of whether we have won or lost.
- Show respect for the opposition and officials.
- Keep winning and losing in perspective with personal challenge and enjoyment.
- The use of members from other teams is strongly discouraged unless necessitated by injury or unavailability.
- Play hard but play fair.
- Read and understand the players and supporters code of conduct documents.
