Whānau Pānui (Newsletter) Update – 9 June 2023

Industrial Action

The PPTA (teachers' union) has advised that the industrial actions will continue from Monday 12 June. This is because members have voted to not accept the proposed offer from the Ministry of Education.

Rostering home has been increased to two year levels, four days a week. We understand that this action will be disruptive to learning, and teaching.

Rostering home

On the days notified below, taiohi / students in the year levels listed will not be taught or supervised by PPTA (teachers' union) members. Teaching and supervision of other year levels not subject to the strike action will continue as normal.

Rostered home year levels should not come to school, and we encourage the time to be used to catch up on assignments and other important work.

If there are 14 year olds where parents/caregivers do not have a suitable supervision option, then please advise our student support office. We can provide a supervised space in the library.

Email: studentsupport@thameshigh.school.nz

Because of the loss of learning time with this action, we have decided to postpone the Year 12 and 13 Healthy relationships programme previously advised.
